

Data Protection and Privacy Statement

Last updated: 01.04.2019

1. Introduction

The Global AMR R&D Hub is committed to protecting and respecting the privacy of its members, stakeholders and other involved parties. This Privacy Statement refers to all parties who provide personal data to us. It states our reasons for collecting and processing personal data and the way we protect it.

2. Purpose of the processing

The data you provide are collected to allow the Secretariat of the Global AMR R&D Hub to manage registrations for the workshops/conferences it organises, communicate with stakeholders such as members of the Stakeholder Group, work with external experts, such as Members of External Advisory Groups, provide information to interested individuals that register to receive our e-mail alerts/newsletters etc.

A limited subset of this information may be used by the Secretariat of the Global AMR R&D Hub for communication purposes. The Secretariat may also use the contact details to compile invitation lists for Global AMR R&D Hub conferences and other organised events.

3. Which data do we collect and process?

The data subjects include any individual, organisation or entity. The data are collected directly or indirectly from the data subjects, and are necessary for our internal operation, reporting and communication with the data subject and the public.

4. How long do we keep your data?

The Secretariat of the Global AMR R&D Hub will keep your data for not longer than needed and in any case not longer than for 5 years.

5. How do we protect your data?

All data in electronic format are stored on either Global AMR R&D Hub servers or on computers, laptops of staff of the Global AMR R&D Hub Secretariat – with appropriate security measures in place.

All stakeholders involved (e.g. Global AMR R&D Hub Secretariat staff, external reviewers, the Global AMR R&D Hub Board) are reminded to handle personal data confidentially and to use the personal data only for the purpose for which they were transmitted and to disregard all irrelevant and excessive data received. Furthermore, all stakeholders are bound by the terms of the Global AMR R&D Hub Confidentiality Agreement, which assures confidentiality in all processes.

6. Who has access to your data and to whom is it disclosed?

All recipients are reminded of their obligation to process the personal data provided to them only for the purposes for which they are collected or transmitted. Access to personal data is given to Global AMR R&D Hub Secretariat without requiring the consent of the data subject.

7. Contact information

Should you have any comments or questions, concerns, or a complaint regarding the way the Secretariat of the Global AMR R&D Hub collects, processes and manages your personal data, please send an email to: globalamrhub@dzif.de.
